			ABSTRACT
			INDEXED

On 28 December 1961, AKLADLE was shown a collection of photographs of Soviet officials assigned in the United Kingdom. The collection contained photographs identified only by a number keyed to a list of identities which was not shown to him. From the collection of over 250 photographs, AKLADLE recognized and commented on nine individuals. His remarks, listed in attachment, may be passed to [BNOTE] and [JAGUAR]. (Information in right column of Attachment comes from Headquarters' files.)

KATO Comments:

a) Photo #28 - Name unknown, but he is in intelligence

b) Photo #40 - Face is familiar.
He may be in intelligence.

c) Photo #98 - Face is familiar.
Probably in intelligence.

d) Photo #119 - Face is familiar.
Reminds Source of one Lev LEBEDEV a fellow student at the age of about 15. Source would like to know the identity of Photo #119.

Lev Alekseyevich BRAGIN

Born 8 September 1925. Assigned to the Soviet Mission to the UN in New York between December 1954 and August 1958. Photo identified by both DERYABIN and RASTVOROV as connected with intelligence.
Identified while in the U.S. by the FBI as a known intelligence officer, probably GRU. He was not declared PNG by the U.S.
Government, but in May 1959 an official note was sent to the UN Secretary General stating that the U.S. Government did not want him in the U.S. again. Assigned to the Soviet Embassy in London as a 2nd Secretary in April 1961.

Nikolay Danilovich DUNKOV

Born 29 October 1920. Door-keeper at the Soviet Embassy in London between 1954 and 1957.
Identified by DERYABIN as an officer in the Foreign Intelligence Directorate connected with either the Technical or Code Section some time in 1952 or 1953. Assigned to the Soviet Embassy in London as a clerk in July 1960.

Grigoriy Petrovich KONKOV

Born 20 February 1918. Traveled only once as a "diplomatic courier"
in the spring of 1956 to Canada, Mexico and the U.S. Recorded as "probably KGB" and not a genuine courier. Assigned to the Soviet Embassy in London as a clerk in May 1960.

Lev Yakovlevich LEBEDEV

Born 26 October 1926. Assigned to the Soviet Trade Delegation in London as an engineer in January 1961. No other information.
